Starcana: Green Magic

A Coloring Book of Botanical Enchantment

Ash Miyagawa

Advanced coloring of herbs, botanicals, and green magick

Summary

Starcana: Green Magic is the follow-up to the gorgeously illustrated Starcana: Moon Magic. In this elevated, highly detailed, and entrancing collection of more than 45 illustrations, advanced colorists will delight in the magickal themes elaborately depicted throughout. The evolved next book in the series hones in on green witchcraft and herbalism and pushes these lenses further into surrealist juxtapositions. With botanicals that relate to specific planets, this coloring book is imbued with practical green magic as well as popular new-age astrology themes. Complete with gorgeous green line art, the Starcana line of advanced coloring books stands apart from the competition.

Contributor Bio

ASH MIYAGAWA is a multidisciplinary illustrator and designer based in Chicago, Illinois. Her dark and delicate illustrative work is rooted in esoteric symbols found in the natural world and beyond—allowing one to reveal new narratives for themselves in interpretation of the details. In her spare time, she can be found insect pinning, walking along lake Michigan or curling up to read with her two black cats, Fig and Jasper.

The Jane Austen Insult Guide for Well-Bred Women

Serving Tea with a Side of Scorn

Emily Reed

A sensible collection of withering rebuffs for Jane Austen fans

Summary

This gifty humor book is a celebration of the sharpest, wittiest, most beloved Jane Austen characters and the surprisingly timeless power of their biting and poignant words. Each spread includes a scathing Austen character quote, its literary context, and poignant suggestions for modern-day application. Did that anti-immigration speech from Uncle Ron ruin Thanksgiving dinner? Render him confused and speechless with a well-timed, hate-whispered: "It was a delightful visit—perfect in being much too short" as you hightail it out of there. The Jane Austen Insult Guide for Well-Bred Women is the perfect female-forward humor gift for book lovers and Austen fans alike.

"I send no compliments to your mother." —Lady Catherine, Pride and Prejudice

"It was a delightful visit—perfect in being much too short." —Emma

"After abusing you so abominably to your face, I could have no scruple in abusing you to all your relations." —Elizabeth, Pride and Prejudice

Contributor Bio

EMILY REED is a freelance writer and ardent Austen fan who often finds herself wondering "What Would Jane Do?" in irksome social interactions. You can usually find her curled up with a book and a cat at her home in Bloomfield, New Jersey.
